

United States Government
NATIONAL LABOR RELATIONS BOARD
OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL
Washington, DC 20570-0001

May 4, 2016

The Honorable David Mader
Controller
Office of Management and Budget
725 17th Street, NW
Washington, DC 20503

Dear Mr. Mader:

Pursuant to the Improper Payments Information Act (IPIA), as amended by the Improper Payments Elimination and Recovery Act and the Improper Payments Elimination and Recovery Improvement Act (IPERIA), Inspectors General are required to review agency improper payment reporting in the annual Performance and Accountability Report, and accompanying materials, to determine if the agency is in compliance with IPIA.

The National Labor Relations Board (NLRB) Fiscal Year (FY) 2015 Performance and Accountability Report met the requirements of IPIA, as amended. The NLRB's FY 2015 Performance and Accountability Report states that "we estimate the improper payments rate to be at most 1.5 percent and the improper payments amount to be $3,813,149.17 or less. This level is below the threshold established by the OMB and therefore does not represent significant improper payments. Accordingly, no plan is proposed to further reduce improper payments nor would a recovery audit program be cost effective." We concur with the determination that the NLRB does not have a risk of significant improper payments.
