

EMPLOYEE TERMINATED FOR VIOLATION OF COMPANY POLICY

Activity Date: June 22, 2018

Web Summary: OIG-WS-2018-327

An Amtrak Food Specialist in Los Angeles, California, was terminated from employment following an administrative hearing June 22, 2018, for violating company policy by fraudulently designating four individuals who were not his legal dependents as beneficiaries on his company health insurance. During the time these individuals were improperly covered under the company's health insurance plan, the company paid approximately $744,000 in health care claims on their behalf.

Date Posted: XX

OIG Investigative Case Number: CA-15-0421-HL-O