Dear Ms. Young:

The Government Charge Card Abuse Prevention Act of 2012 (Pub. L. No. 112-194) requires Inspectors General to report to the Director of the Office of Management and Budget their agency's progress in implementing government charge card audit recommendations.

We issued our most recent purchase card audit report in May 2022.¹ As of September 30, 2024, the National Science Foundation (NSF) had no open purchase card audit recommendations. We are not submitting a semiannual Joint Purchase Card Violation Report because NSF's FY 2024 purchase card activity was less than $10 million. We are currently conducting a risk assessment of NSF's purchase card program.

We issued our most recent travel card audit report in August 2015.² As of September 30, 2024, there were no outstanding NSF travel card audit recommendations. Travel card activity for FY 2024 also was less than $10 million.

If you have any questions, please contact me at 703-292-7100 or OIGPublicAffairs@nsf.gov.

Sincerely,
