

MANAGER RESIGNS FOR FAILURE TO PROPERLY SUPERVISE SUBORDINATE EMPLOYEE

Activity Date: April 4, 2026

Date Posted: June 11, 2026

Case Number: 24-0006-I

Web Summary: OIG-WS-2026-325

An Amtrak facilities manager based in Chicago, Illinois, resigned from the company on April 4, 2026, while under investigation. Our investigation found that the former manager violated company policies by not fulfilling his supervisory responsibilities related to a subordinate employee's procurement card transactions, resulting in unauthorized and fraudulent purchases. The former manager also failed to properly oversee overtime hours claimed by the subordinate employee. The former manager is not eligible for rehire. The subordinate employee previously resigned from his position on September 19, 2025.
