Dear Ms. Evans:

2015-15335 – MONITORING OF ERNST & YOUNG LLP'S AUDIT OF THE TENNESSEE VALLEY AUTHORITY FISCAL YEAR 2015 FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

The Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) contracted with the independent certified public accounting firm of Ernst & Young LLP (EY) to audit its consolidated balance sheet as of September 30, 2015, and the related consolidated statements of operations, comprehensive income (loss), changes in proprietary capital, and cash flows for the year then ended. In addition, the contract called for the auditor's examination of TVA's internal control over financial reporting as of September 30, 2015, and review of TVA's fiscal year 2015 interim financial information filed quarterly on Form 10-Q with the Securities and Exchange Commission. The contract required EY's work be performed in accordance with U. S. generally accepted government auditing standards (GAGAS).

Under the Inspector General Act of 1978, as amended, the Inspector General (IG) is responsible for taking appropriate steps to assure any work performed by nonfederal auditors, including EY, complies with GAGAS. The Chief Financial Officers Act of 1990 also places responsibilities on the IG regarding TVA's annual financial statement audit. In keeping with these statutory responsibilities, my office reviewed EY's reports and related audit documentation, inquired of its representatives, and performed other procedures as we deemed appropriate in the circumstances.

Our review, as differentiated from an audit in accordance with GAGAS, was not intended to enable us to express, and we do not express, an opinion on TVA's financial statements or the effectiveness of its internal control over financial reporting. EY is responsible for the auditor's reports dated November 20, 2015, and the conclusions expressed in those reports. However, our review disclosed no instances where EY did not comply, in all material respects, with GAGAS.

Very truly yours,

Richard W. Moore
