

MEMORANDUM

Date: September 4, 2019

TO: USAID/Management/Office of Acquisition and Assistance/Cost, Audit, and Support Division, Branch Chief, David A. McNeil

FROM: Acting Director of External Financial Audits Division, Steven Shea/s/

SUBJECT: Title 2 CFR Part 200 Audit of Adventist Development and Relief Agency International for the Fiscal Year Ended December 31, 2017 (3-000-19-007-T)

This memorandum transmits the final audit report on Adventist Development and Relief Agency International (ADRA) under Title 2 United States Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017. The audit report was obtained from the Federal Audit Clearinghouse. PricewaterhouseCoopers, LLP performed the Title 2 CFR Part 200 audit.

The audit firm states it performed its audit in accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards and in accordance with Title 2 CFR Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. The audit firm is responsible for the enclosed report and the conclusions expressed in it. We do not express an opinion on ADRA's financial statements; the effectiveness of its internal control; or its compliance with the awards, laws, and regulations.¹

The audit's objectives were to: (1) express an opinion on whether the financial statements as of December 31, 2017 were presented fairly, in all material respects; (2) express an opinion on whether the schedule of expenditures of federal awards as required by 2 CFR Part 200 Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards is fairly stated in all material respects; (3) describe the scope of testing of internal controls and compliance and the results of that testing and not to provide an opinion on its effectiveness; and (4) determine whether ADRA complied in all material respects with the types of compliance requirements that could have a direct and material effect on each of its major programs. ADRA's audited expenditures were $23,494,926 and the U.S. Agency for International Development's

¹ We reviewed the audit firm's report for conformity with professional reporting standards. Our desk reviews are typically performed to identify any items needing clarification or issues requiring management attention. Desk reviews are limited to review of the audit report itself and excludes review of the auditor's supporting working papers; they are not designed to enable us to directly evaluate the quality of the audit performed.

(USAID) audited expenditures were $ 22,787,721 for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2017.

The audit firm expressed an unmodified opinion on the financial statements. Additionally, (1) the audit firm determined that the schedule of expenditures of federal awards was fairly stated in all material respects, and ADRA complied, in all material respects, with the types of compliance requirements that could have a direct and material effect on each of its major federal programs for the year ended December 31, 2017; (2) the audit firm did not identify any deficiencies in internal control that were considered material weaknesses or significant deficiencies; and (3) the audit firm did not identify any instances of noncompliance required to be reported under generally accepted government auditing standards. The audit firm issued a management letter. There were no questioned costs identified.

We appreciate the assistance extended during the engagement.
