

MEMORANDUM

DATE: September 23, 2020

TO: USAID/Management/Office of Acquisition and Assistance/Cost, Audit, and Support Division, Supervisory Auditor, Eleanor C. Jefferson

FROM: Director of External Financial Audits Division (IG/A/EFA), David A. McNeil /s/

SUBJECT: Single Audit of Counterpart International, Inc. for the Fiscal Year Ended September 30, 2016 (3-000-20-017-T)

This memorandum transmits the final audit report on Counterpart International, Inc. for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2016. The audit report was obtained from the Federal Audit Clearinghouse. Gelman, Rosenberg & Freedman performed the Title 2 U.S. Code of Federal Regulations (CFR) Part 200 audit. The audit firm stated it performed its audit in accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards and in accordance with Title 2 CFR Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards. The audit firm is responsible for the enclosed report and conclusions expressed in it. We do not express an opinion on Counterpart International, Inc. financial statements; the effectiveness of its internal control; or its compliance with the awards, laws, and regulations¹.

The audit objectives were to: (1) express an opinion on whether the financial statements as of September 30, 2016 were presented fairly in all material respects; (2) express an opinion on whether the schedule of expenditures of federal awards as required by Title 2 CFR Part 200, Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for Federal Awards is fairly stated in all material respects; (3) describe the scope of testing of internal control and compliance and the results of that testing and not to provide an opinion on its effectiveness; and (4) determine whether Counterpart International, Inc. complied in all material respects with the types of compliance requirements that could have a direct and material effect on each of its major federal programs. To answer the audit objectives, the audit firm performed tests of Counterpart International, Inc.'s compliance with specific provisions of laws, regulations, contracts, and grant agreements and other matters. Counterpart International, Inc.'s audited expenditures of federal awards were $61,502,038 of which the U.S. Agency for International Development's (USAID) audited expenditures of Federal Awards were $52,897,085 for fiscal year ended September 30, 2016.

The audit firm expressed unmodified opinions on the financial statements and on compliance for the major federal programs. Additionally, the audit firm concluded the schedule of expenditures of federal awards was fairly stated, in all material respects, in relation to the financial statements as a whole. The audit firm did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over financial reporting that were material weaknesses. The audit firm did not identify any deficiencies in internal control over compliance that it considered to be material weaknesses. The audit firm did not question any costs.

OIG does not routinely distribute independent public accounting reports beyond the immediate addressees because a high percentage of these reports contain information restricted from release under the Trade Secrets Act, 18 U.S.C. 1905 and Freedom of Information Act Exemption Four, 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(4) ("commercial or financial information obtained from a person that is privileged or confidential").
