Agency Employee Terminated for False Statement and Timesheet Fraud

DATE ISSUED 10.19.2015

CNCS Management reported a CNCS employee may have submitted fraudulent timesheets when she claimed hours not worked. CNCS-OIG investigators uncovered evidence the CNCS employee did submit fraudulent timesheets between July 2014 and February 2015 for hours the employee arrived late or departed early from work. Additionally, it was determined that the employee submitted a false Declaration of Federal Employment form when she was untruthful regarding the circumstance of her departure from her previous Federal employer.

CNCS Management terminated the employee and sought restitution of the $772.96 for the hours not worked.
