Commission Officials Misuses Federal Program Funds

DATE ISSUED 02.25.2016

A hotline complainant alleged that the District of Columbia Commission (Commission) officials misused CNCS administrative grant funds for unauthorized events. CNCS-OIG investigators determined that Commission officials misused Federal program funds when they purchased t-shirts for events held by the Mayor’s Office in violation of the grant terms and conditions. Additionally, grant officials claimed unallowable expenses for storage space used by non-AmeriCorps resources and catering costs. The investigation also uncovered that Commission officials failed to track the actual time employee’s spent on different projects.

As result of the CNCS-OIG investigation and CNCS program and grant officials review, CNCS Management recovered $45,455.29 in disallowed and misspent funds.
