INVESTIGATIVE CASE SUMMARIES

January 2018

In January 2018, a former Department contractor was sentenced to three years' probation for the sale of Government property. OIG special agents determined that, from March 2016 through March 2017, the contractor, who worked as a special skills tactics instructor at the Diplomatic Security Interim Training Facility, unlawfully acquired ballistic vests and combat helmets valued at more than $16,000 and sold and traded them online for other items. The former contractor had pleaded guilty to theft and sale of Government property in September 2017.
