

Summary: NPS Employee Made Inappropriate Sexual Advances Towards a Colleague

Report Date: July 22, 2019

Report No. 19-0166

The OIG investigated allegations that a U.S. National Park Service (NPS) employee sexually harassed a colleague during a trip to gather data from a weather station.

We found that the employee made unwanted sexual advances towards the colleague during an off-duty road trip including hugging, kissing, and making inappropriate comments.

This is a summary of an investigative report that was issued to the acting director of the NPS.

