

Summary: Alleged Sexual Assault at Grand Canyon National Park

Report Date: September 16, 2020

Report Number: 18-0762

The OIG investigated a complaint by a National Park Service (NPS) employee who, in 2018, alleged that another NPS employee sexually assaulted them while they were both stationed at the Grand Canyon National Park (GRCA) in 2003.

We found insufficient evidence to substantiate the allegation.

This is a summary of an investigative report we issued to the NPS Acting Director.
