

OFFICE OF INSPECTOR GENERAL U.S. Agency for International Development

MEMORANDUM

DATE: March 21, 2023

TO: USAID/Honduras Acting Mission Director, Ken MacLean

FROM: Latin America and Caribbean (LAC) Regional Office, through Global and Strategic Audits Division (GSAD) Assistant Director, Pamela Hamilton /s/

SUBJECT: Financial Audit of the Building Resilience Through Markets and Sustainable Coffee Production in the West of Honduras Project, Managed by COHONDUCAFE Foundation, Cooperative Agreement 72052218CA00001, January 1 to December 31, 2021 (9-522-23-012-R)

This memorandum transmits the final audit report on the Building Resilience Through Markets and Sustainable Coffee Production in the West of Honduras Project. The COHONDUCAFE Foundation contracted with the independent audit firm ECOVIS Honduras S. de R.L. to conduct the audit. The audit firm stated that it performed its audit in accordance with generally accepted government auditing standards. However, it did not have an external peer review or a continuing professional education program that fully satisfy the standards' requirements. The audit firm is responsible for the enclosed report and the conclusions expressed in it. We do not express an opinion on COHONDUCAFE Foundation's schedule of expenditures of USAID awards; the effectiveness of its internal control; or its compliance with the award, laws, and regulations.¹

The audit objectives were to (1) express an opinion on whether the schedule of expenditures of USAID awards for the period audited, was presented fairly, in all material respects; (2) evaluate the COHONDUCAFE Foundation's internal controls; (3) determine whether COHONDUCAFE Foundation complied with award terms and applicable laws and regulations; and (4) determine if COHONDUCAFE Foundation has taken adequate corrective action on prior audit recommendations. To answer the audit objectives, the audit firm reported that they assessed and tested the internal controls related to the project; assessed and tested compliance with applicable laws, regulations, the agreement's provisions; and reviewed project expenditures. The audit covered $872,019 of USAID expenditures for the audited period.

The audit firm concluded the schedule of expenditures of USAID awards presented fairly, in all material respects, program revenues and costs incurred under the award for the period audited.

¹ We reviewed the audit firm's report for conformity with professional reporting standards. Our desk reviews are typically performed to identify any items needing clarification or issues requiring management attention. Desk reviews are limited to review of the audit report itself and excludes review of the auditor's supporting working papers; they are not designed to enable us to directly evaluate the quality of the audit performed.

The audit firm did not identify any material weaknesses in internal control or instances of material noncompliance with applicable laws, regulations, and agreement terms. The audit firm issued a management letter which stated that the recipient has taken adequate corrective actions on prior audit report recommendations.

Based on the results of the desk review, OIG is not making any recommendation to USAID/Honduras.

OIG does not routinely distribute independent public accounting reports beyond the immediate addressees because a high percentage of these reports contain information restricted from release under the Trade Secrets Act, 18 U.S.C. 1905 and Freedom of Information Act Exemption Four, 5 U.S.C. 552(b)(4) ("commercial or financial information obtained from a person that is privileged or confidential").
