Executive Summary

This Semiannual Report, submitted pursuant to Section 5 of the Inspector General Act of 1978, as amended, summarizes the major activities and accomplishments of the Federal Labor Relations Authority (FLRA) Office of Inspector General (OIG) for the period October 1, 2015 to March 31, 2016. The most significant activities of the OIG during the first half of Fiscal Year (FY) 2016 are noted below. Additional details pertaining to each activity can be found in subsequent sections of this report.

Audits and Evaluations Highlights

During this reporting period, the OIG issued six audits and evaluations including: (1) the annual Financial Statement Audit of the Federal Labor Relations Authority for Fiscal Year 2015 (AR-16-01); (2) Management Letter for Fiscal Year 2015 Audit of the Federal Labor Relations Authority Financial Statements (AR-16-02); (3) Follow-up Audit of the Federal Labor Relations Authority Charge Card Program and Risk Assessment for Fiscal Year 2015 (AR-16-03); (4) Evaluation of the Federal Labor Relations Authority Compliance with the Federal Information Security Management Act Fiscal Year 2015 (ER-16-01); (5) Federal Labor Relations Authority's Compliance with the Improper Payments Elimination and Recovery Act of 2010 in the Fiscal Year 2015 Performance and Accountability Report (ER-16-02); and (6) the OIG issued the most serious Management and Performance Challenges facing the FLRA.

The OIG contracted with Dembo, Jones, Healy, Pennington & Marshall, P.C. (DJHPM) to audit the FLRA Financial Statements for FY 2015. DJHPM expressed an unqualified opinion. Also, the OIG issued a Management Letter in connection with the financial statement audit.

DJHPM under contract with the OIG completed a Follow-up Audit of the Federal Labor Relations Authority Charge Card Program and Risk Assessment for Fiscal Year 2015 (AR-16-03). The auditor's assessed the status of two recommendations made in the FY 2014 Charge Card Program. Our review showed that FLRA addressed all the recommendations resulting in the closure of all findings.

In addition, the OIG issued an evaluation report on the FLRA's compliance with the Federal Information Security Management Act (ER-16-01). The FLRA has taken steps to improve the information security program by closing two out the five prior year issues. This year's testing resulted in four new findings.

The OIG determined that the FLRA is compliant with the Improper Payments Elimination and Recovery Act of 2010 (ER-16-02) and applicable guidance.

Ongoing Audits and Evaluations

The OIG has one ongoing review, entitled, "Follow-up Review of the Federal Labor Relations Authority's FY 2016 Privacy Program (AR-16-04). DJHPM is conducting a review of the FLRA privacy and data security policies, procedures and practices. We plan to issue an audit report in the second half of FY 2016.

Investigations Highlights

The FLRA OIG received 50 hotline inquiries. Of the 50 hotline inquiries received 66 percent of the inquiries were resolved by either the OIG or within the FLRA.

Other Activities Highlights

On December 22, 2015, we responded to a Senate request for information on all closed investigations, evaluations, and audits conducted by the FLRA OIG that were not disclosed to the public.

Looking Ahead

The OIG plans to initiate the following audit and evaluations during the second half of FY 2016:

1. Audit of the Federal Labor Relations Authority's Financial Statements for Fiscal Year 2016 (AR-17-01);
2. Evaluation of the Federal Labor Relations Authority's Compliance with the Federal Information Security Management Act Fiscal Year 2016 (ER-17-01);
3. Quality Control Review of the FLRA OIG Audit Operations (ER-16-03);
4. Peer Review of the Farm Credit Administration OIG (ER-16-04); and
5. Audit of the Data Act (AR-16-05).

Federal Labor Relations Authority Overview

Mission

The mission of the Federal Labor Relations Authority (FLRA) is to carry out the five primary statutory responsibilities as efficiently as possible and in a manner that gives full effect to the rights afforded employees and agencies under the Federal Service Labor-Management Relations Statute (the Statute). Under the Statute, the primary responsibilities (type of cases) of the FLRA include:

1. Determining the appropriateness of units for labor organization representation (REP);
2. Adjudicating exceptions to arbitrator's awards (ARB);
3. Resolving complaints of unfair labor practices (ULP);
4. Resolving bargaining impasses; and
5. Resolving issues relating to the duty to bargain (NEG).

Organization

The FLRA conducts its case processing activities through:

- The Office of the General Counsel (OGC) of the Authority – led by the General Counsel, who is appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate – which, through regional offices, is the entry point for ULP charges filed with the FLRA. The OGC also processes REP petitions filed with the FLRA and decides appeals of Regional Directors' decisions dismissing ULP charges.
- The Office of Administrative Law Judges is the office in which judges appointed by the Authority conduct administrative hearings and issue recommended decisions in cases involving alleged ULPs and issue decisions involving applications for attorney fees under the Back Pay Act or the Equal Access to Justice Act.
- The Authority is a quasi-judicial body (with three full-time Members --one of which serves as the FLRA Chairman-- appointed by the President and confirmed by the Senate), that resolves appeals in ULP and REP cases and adjudicates exceptions to ARB awards and NEG appeals.
- The Federal Service Impasses Panel, which consists of up to seven part-time members appointed by the President (without Senate confirmation), resolves impasses between Federal agencies and unions representing Federal employees under the Statute and the Federal Employees Flexible and Compressed Work Schedules Act.

Federal Labor Relations Authority Overview

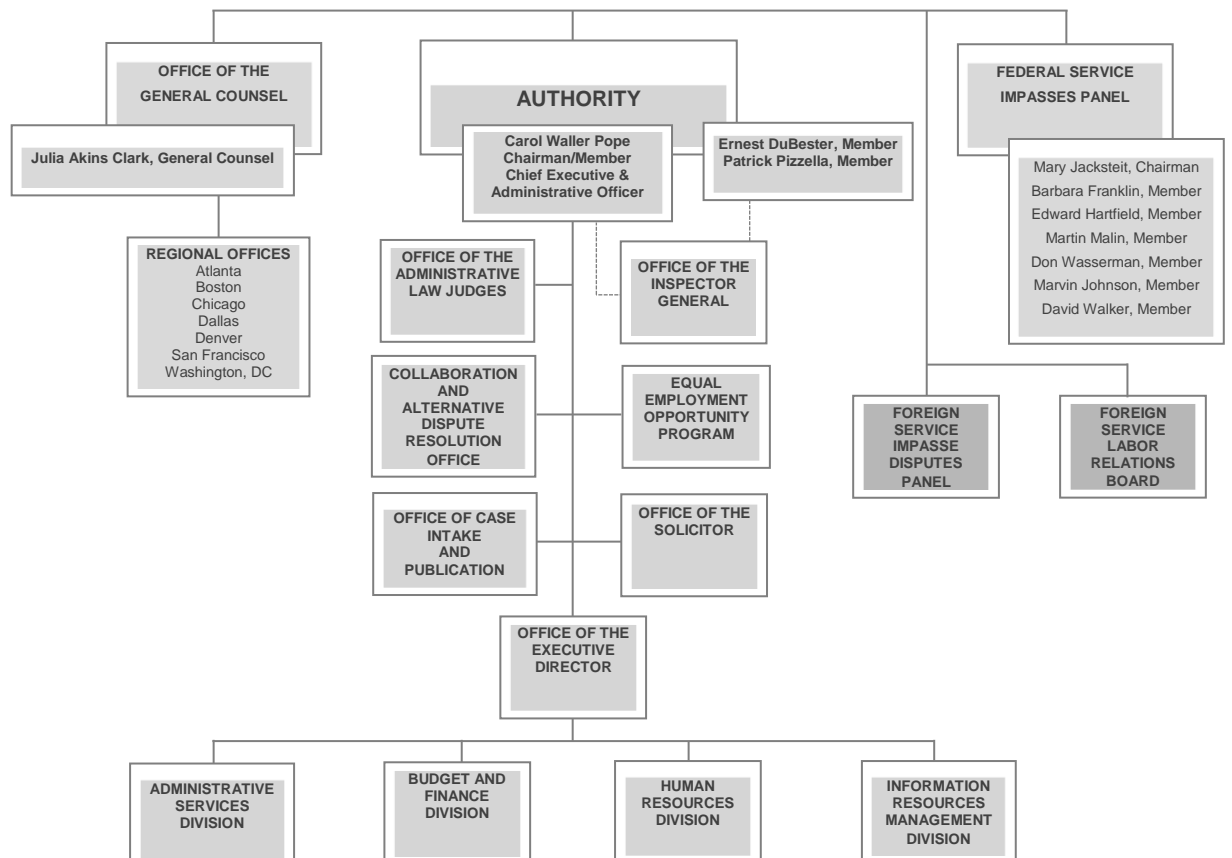

- The FLRA also provides full staff support to two other entities: the Foreign Service Impasse Disputes Panel and the Foreign Service Labor Relations Board.

The Chairman is the head of the Agency and also serves as FLRA’s Chief Executive and Administrative Officer, overseeing all agency-wide administrative functions.

In carrying out statutory responsibilities, the Chairman oversees the following offices:

- The Office of the Executive Director, which provides agency-wide operational support through the following divisions: Budget and Finance, Administrative Services, and Information Resources Management.
- The Office of the Solicitor, which represents the agency in court proceedings before all United States Courts and provides the Chairman legal advice on various legal issues.
- The Office of Human Resources, which is responsible for providing agency-wide Human Resource services, and leading human capital management efforts pursuant to the FLRA Strategic Plan.

Office of Inspector General

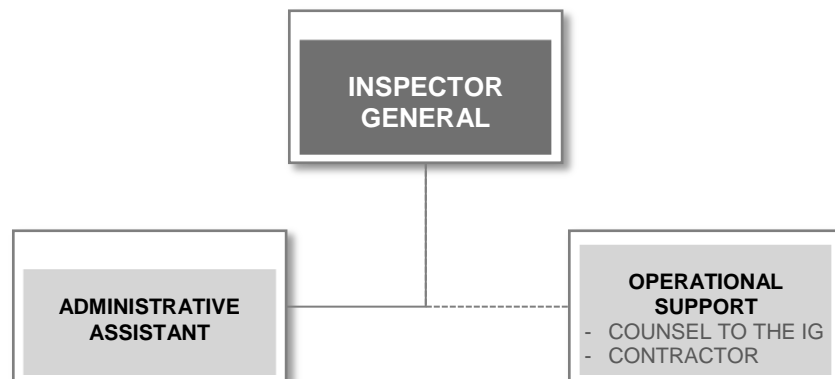

The Inspector General Act of 1978, as amended (hereafter referred to as the IG Act), requires the FLRA and other small agencies to establish an Office of Inspector General (OIG). FLRA is a designated Federal entity under the IG Act of 1978, as amended. The Dodd-Frank Wall Street Reform and Consumer Protection Act (P.L. 111-203) altered the relationship of the designated Federal entity Offices of Inspectors General with the agency head by establishing that the term “head of the designated Federal entity” for FLRA “means the members of the Authority.” In accordance with the Dodd-Frank Act, we submit this report to the Chairman and Authority Members.

The FLRA OIG is responsible for:

1. conducting and supervising audits, evaluations and investigations relating to FLRA programs and operations;
2. reviewing legislation;
3. recommending policies designed to promote economy, efficiency, and effectiveness of the establishment; and
4. keeping the Chairman, Authority Members, and Congress fully and currently informed about problems and deficiencies, as well as the necessity for corrective actions.

To aid the OIG in accomplishing its mission, the OIG was provided an administrative assistant.

Audits and Evaluations

In accordance with the IG Act, the FLRA OIG conducts, supervises and coordinates audits and evaluations relating to the programs and operations of the FLRA.

Completed Audits and Evaluations

We completed 6 audits and evaluations during this reporting period.

1. Financial Statement Audit of the Federal Labor Relations Authority for Fiscal Year 2015 (AR-16-01)
 - The Accountability of Tax Dollars Act of 2002 Public Law 107-289 requires the FLRA OIG or an independent external auditor, as determined by the IG to prepare and submit to Congress and the Director of the Office of Management and Budget, audited financial statements.
 - Under a contract monitored by the OIG, Dembo, Jones, Healy, Pennington & Marshall, P.C. (DJHPM) an independent certified public accounting firm, performed an audit of the financial statements of FLRA as of September 30, 2015, and the related statements of net cost and changes in net position, and the statements of budgetary resources. DJHPM expressed an unqualified opinion on FLRA's financial statements and reported that they presented fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of FLRA as of September 30, 2015.
 - DJHPM was not contracted for and did not provide an opinion on the effectiveness of FLRA's internal controls. However, DJHPM did state that they did not identify any deficiencies in internal controls over financial reporting that were considered to be material weaknesses or significant deficiencies.
2. Management Letter for Fiscal Year 2015 Audit of the Federal Labor Relations Authority Financial Statements (AR-16-02)
 - DJHPM, under contract with the OIG, audited FLRA's balance sheet as of September 30, 2015. DJHPM also examined FLRA's internal controls over financial reporting and identified other operational matters, which resulted in one prior year observation remaining open at the end of the reporting period.
 - This year's review identified one new finding.

- FLRA management is committed to resolving the deficiencies by the end of the calendar year.
3. Evaluation of the Federal Labor Relations Authority Compliance with the Federal Information Security Management Act Fiscal Year 2015 (ER-16-01)
- The E-Government Act of 2002 (P.L. 107-347), commonly referred to as FISMA, requires Federal agencies to develop, document, and implement an agency-wide information security program that provides security for the information systems that support the operations and assets of the agency. FISMA assigns specific responsibilities to agency heads and the IGs.
 - FISMA requires agencies to have an annual independent evaluation performed on their information security programs and practices and to report the evaluation results to OMB. FISMA states that the independent evaluation is to be performed by the agency IG or an independent external auditor as determined by the IG.
 - DJHMP, on behalf of the OIG, conducted an independent evaluation of FLRA's compliance with FISMA for FY 2015 using guidelines established by FISMA, OMB, and the National Institute of Standards and Technology. A report was issued November 9, 2015. During the FY 2015 FISMA evaluation DJHMP performed a test on controls and a Vulnerability Assessment on the FLRA network. This year's testing resulted in four new findings. The report also included a follow-up of five prior year issues. Each of those issues has many elements that make up each finding. If any one of the elements is open, then that issue remains open. Three issues remain open. FLRA management has a plan to resolve these deficiencies by the end of the fiscal year.
4. Follow-up Audit of the Federal Labor Relations Authority Charge Card Program and Risk Assessment for Fiscal Year 2016 (AR-16-03)
- The Government Charge Card Abuse Act of 2012 (Charge Card Act), Public Law 112-194, requires Inspectors General to conduct periodic risk assessments (at least annually) of agency purchase cards (including convenience checks), combined integrated card programs and travel card programs to analyze the risks of illegal, improper, or erroneous purchases.
 - The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) Memorandum M-13-21, requires this office to report to the Director of OMB annually on the FLRA's progress in implementing audit recommendations related to Government purchase cards. In January 2016, DJHMP under contract with the OIG conducted a follow-up audit in accordance with the Government Accountability Office's generally accepted auditing standards to formally assess the FLRA's Audit of the Federal Labor Relations Authority Charge Card Program and Risk Assessment for Fiscal Year 2015” Report No., AR-16-03 showed that both recommendations were implemented and are now closed. We also performed a risk assessment of the charge card program and assigned a low risk for FY 2015.

5. Federal Labor Relations Authority’s Compliance with the Improper Payments Elimination and Recovery Act of 2010 in the Fiscal Year 2015 Performance and Accountability Report (ER-16-02)
 - The OIG made a determination that FLRA is compliant with applicable provisions of the Improper Payments Elimination and Recovery Act of 2010, in accordance with Sec. 3(b) of Public Law 111-204, Improper Payments Elimination and Recovery Act of 2010.
6. Management and Performance Challenges
 - The Reports Consolidation Act of 2000, Public Law 106-531, requires the IG to provide the agency head with a statement that summarizes the most serious management and performance challenges facing the agency and briefly assesses the agency’s progress in addressing those challenges.
 - On October 22, 2015, we provided the Chairman and Authority Members the most serious management and performance challenges facing the FLRA along with a brief assessment of management’s progress in addressing them. These ongoing challenges included: information technology security needs continuing improvement, proper handling of records; and building and sustaining a high-performing workforce. 6.

Ongoing Audits and Evaluations

1. Follow-up Review of the Federal Labor Relations Authority’s FY 2016 Privacy Program
 - The Consolidated Appropriations Act, 2005 (Public Law 108-447), Section 552, requires the Inspector General review the agency compliance with Section 552 for privacy and data protection procedures and policies.
 - DJHPM under contract with OIG is conducting a follow-up Review of the Federal Labor Relations Authority’s Fiscal Year 2015 Privacy Program. The OIG plans to issue a report in the second half of FY 2016.

Planned... The 2nd half of FY 2016, we plan to initiate 5 audits/evaluations.

Planned Audits and Evaluations

The OIG plans to initiate the following audit and evaluations during the second half of FY 2016:

1. Audit of the Federal Labor Relations Authority's Financial Statements for Fiscal Year 2016 (AR-17-01);
2. Evaluation of the Federal Labor Relations Authority's Compliance with the Federal Information Security Management Act Fiscal Year 2016 (ER-17-01);

5. Audit of the Data Act (AR-16-05).

Investigations

The FLRA OIG receives and investigates allegations of fraud, waste, abuse and misconduct within FLRA programs and operations. The FLRA OIG investigations can give rise to administrative, civil and criminal penalties. Based on investigations conducted, the FLRA IG issues a report that sets forth the allegations and an objective description of the facts to FLRA management regarding administrative and civil matters. Investigations which uncover potential criminal activity are referred to the Department of Justice. As of the end of the semiannual reporting period, the OIG has no opened investigations.

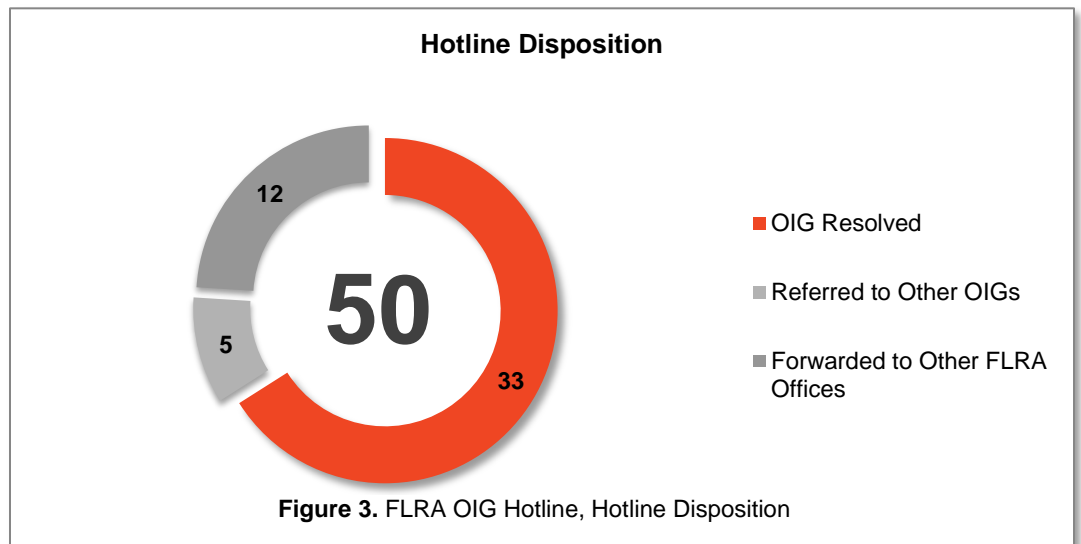

OIG Hotline

In order to facilitate reporting of allegations, FLRA OIG maintains a hotline (see "Contacting the Office of Inspector General"). Callers who have general questions or concerns that do not fall within the OIG's jurisdiction are referred to other entities, such as other FLRA offices, Federal agencies and local or state governments.

During the reporting period, we received 50 hotline inquiries. These hotline inquiries were received via the following methods: 3 telephone calls, 36 OIG Website and 11 letters/emails. Additionally, the OIG resolved 33 of the inquiries, referred 5 to other OIGs, and forwarded 12 to other offices.

"During this FY, the OIG received 50 hotline inquiries..."

Over 66% of the hotline inquiries were resolved by either the OIG or within the FLRA.

Majority of the hotline inquiries received during this FY were via our online site FLRA.gov/oig-hotline

Other Activities

Peer Review

Offices of Inspectors General performing audits are required to perform (and undergo) reviews of other OIG offices on a 3-year cycle. Peer reviews are conducted of an OIG audit organization's system of quality control in accordance with the Council of Inspectors General on Integrity and Efficiency (CIGIE) Guide for Conducting External Peer Reviews of the Audit Organizations of Federal Offices of Inspector General, based on requirements in the Government Auditing Standards (Yellow Book). Federal audit organizations can receive a rating of pass, pass with deficiencies, or fail.

Section 989C of the Dodd-Frank Wall Street and Consumer Protection Act of 2010 contains additional semiannual reporting requirements pertaining to peer review reports. Federal Inspectors General are required to engage in peer review processes related to audit operations. In keeping with Section 989C, our office is reporting the following information related to its peer review activities. These activities cover our role as both the reviewed, and the reviewing OIG.

Peer Review Planned on FLRA OIG Audit Operations

The FLRA OIG's next peer review is projected in FY 2017.

Peer Review to be Conducted by FLRA OIG on Other Audit Operations

The FLRA OIG is scheduled to perform a peer review of the Farm Credit Administration OIG in 2016.

Memorandum of Understanding

In accordance with Section 6 of the Inspector General Reform Act of 2008, each Inspector General shall have his or her own (not reporting to agency management) legal counsel, or obtain the services of a counsel appointed by and directly reporting to another Inspector General or CIGIE on a reimbursable basis. The OIG did not sign a Memorandum of Understanding during this reporting period.

Congressional/Senate Requests

In December 22, 2015, we responded to a Senate request from the Committee on Homeland Security and Governmental Affairs requesting information on open and unimplemented investigations.
